Beyond Barcelona

EIGHT DAYS IN CATALUNYA

Join us on a trip of a lifetime! Wine, gastronomy, history and the Mediterranean culture, hosted by Markus and Liz Bokisch in the towns and vineyards where our story began.

TOUR ONE	May 10–17, 2027
TOUR TWO	May 24–31, 2027

DAY 01 · PENEDES — MONDAY

Montserrat and the Penedes Wine Region, Capital of Cava

We meet in Barcelona at 8:00 am at the Pla de Palau lamppost by Antoni Gaudí and drive to the Monastery of Montserrat, the spiritual center of Catalunya and where Markus's parents were married. Then on to Sant Sadurní d'Anoia, where Markus and Liz lived in 1993–94, for a wine-pairing lunch followed by a private tour and Cava tasting at Pere Ventura. In the evening, we will host a welcome tapas dinner at the Miami Hotel in La Rapita, our home for the week.

DAY 02 · EBRO DELTA — TUESDAY

Rice Fields, Flamingos and a Paella Feast

We begin our day at "La Torreta" to absorb the expansive views, then wind through the rice fields of the Ebro Delta, Catalunya's largest nature park, watching for wild flamingos. Next stop is a Tour El Molí de Rafalet, a working historic rice mill, before a paella tasting extravaganza at Lo Pati d'Agustí in Poble Nou. On the way home, we will see firsthand as the fishermen deliver the day's catch La Llonja fish auction.

DAY 03 · TERRA ALTA

WEDNESDAY

A Templar castle and the Terra Alta Wine Region, home to old-vine Garnacha Blanca

Explore the cliffside village of Miravet and its Templar castle, then stop at the Ferran family ceramics shop, Liz's yearly pilgrimage, so save room in your suitcase! At Edetària Winery, owner Joan Lliberia hosts a private tour and a regional lunch paired with his wines. On the way home we pay homage to "Lo Parot", a 2,000-year-old olive tree near Horta de Sant Joan.

DAY 04 · TORTOSA

THURSDAY

Family Roots, Cathedrals and a Michelin-star Experience

Markus leads a walking tour of Tortosa, still home to his grandmother's family: the medieval quarter, the cathedral and the market, with a Jamón Serrano versus Ibérico tasting. Up the Ebro, tour the modernist Cathedral of Wine in Pinell de Brai, designed by Gaudí disciple Cèsar Martinell. Then sit down to a seven-course lunch by chef Fran López at Michelin-starred Villa Retiro in Xerta. Gastronomy at a level you can't believe!

DAY 05 · PRIORAT FRIDAY

The Priorat: Slate Hillsides and Dark, Powerful Reds

Priorat's steep black-slate "llicorella" slopes earn it DOCa status, Spain's highest classification, shared only with Rioja. Tour the ruins of the Scala Dei Carthusian monastery, the region's original winery, and taste Garnacha in its historic cellars. Lunch is a guided tasting at Perinet's hillside estate, then a siesta-friendly drive home for a Friday night out in La Rapita.

DAY 06 · LA RAPITA SATURDAY

Oysters and Cava on Alfacs Bay

Shop the Mercadillo open market (Liz's favorite shopping spot), then walk with Markus past his grandparent's home and through the fisherman's quarter. At noon, board the Golondrina to the mussel farms of the bay for fresh mussels, oysters and Cava at L'Avi Agustí. Then a tapas lunch at a local hangout followed by an afternoon at the pool and a night out on the town.

DAY 07 · LO XALET

SUNDAY

A Beach Day and our Family Farewell Party

Sunday is yours: the beach, the boardwalk, paddle boards or kayaks. In the evening we walk along the shore to Lo Xalet, the seaside chalet where Markus and Liz spend their summers, for cocktails, a catered farewell dinner and the wines we gathered along the way. Bring a bottle to share if it won't fit in your suitcase!

DAY 08 · BARCELONA

MONDAY

Adiós La Rapita, Hola Barcelona

After breakfast, Markus and Liz will wave you off at 10:00 am for the two-hour drive to Barcelona. Drop-offs at Barcelona International Airport at 12:00pm and at our original meeting point at 1:00pm. Adiós amigos, see you back in Lodi! Back home, you will have the chance to continue to relive the trip at the winery with your new best friends at our exclusive Spain Tour Reunion parties!
